

Canterbury Trails specialises in personally guided, tailor-made, boutique tours around Christchurch and Canterbury as well as luxury transfers around New Zealand's South Island and beyond. We do more than just pick up and drop off...we make the 'in between' a journey to remember.

Boasting a near-perfect 100% rating on TripAdvisor, Canterbury Trails has extensive DOC (Dept of Conservation) consents to explore the real New Zealand. You'll meet locals and gain a first-hand understanding of why the country is unique. You'll learn about our culture, heritage, and stunning landscapes.

Day Tours

Arthur's Pass You can choose to travel on the iconic Tranzalpine train to Arthur's Pass Alpine Village where you will experience stunning waterfalls, mountain beech forests and a chance to see the highly intelligent and colourful Kea, a mountain parrot voted New Zealand's most popular bird.

Akaroa The French Village of Akaroa with its boutique shops, entwined with a strong Maori culture, is just over the hill from Christchurch. This trip offers a harbour cruise with a chance to see one of the world's rarest dolphins, the Hector dolphin, along with other amazing bird and marine life.

Kaikoura travel north through rich farmland, past wineries and experience a whale watch cruise, or flight, where the sperm whale is always the star of the show.

City Tours Also available is the option to explore Christchurch City, travel to the local wine region for informative wine tours or discover the varied native and exotic plants on our garden tours.

South Island Transfers

Combine a day's sightseeing with a transfer from Christchurch to Queenstown, Arthur's Pass, Kaikoura, or Picton.

Short Hop, Multi-Day and Tailor-Made Tours

Our short hop and multi-day South Island tours explore stunning mountains, lakes, primeval forests, and native bush, as well as rugged West Coast beaches and glaciers that drop to near sea level. A helicopter flight to snowy mountain plateaus and kayaking on still deep waters, are also options, as is a visit to a sheep station, winery, or the greenstone (pounamu) attractions of the West Coast.

If you can't find exactly what you are looking for, Canterbury Trails will create a custom itinerary, built around individual guests' interests and fitness.
