Arcadia Lodge has been owned by us, your hosts Greg Hoover and Peter Gillan since April 2017. We both take the role of "host" very seriously and believe our Arcadia is much more than your average B&B. Every aspect of our role is to cater to our guests' needs, making sure our part of your New Zealand experience is the best it can be.

Arcadia Lodge has been hosting guests for nearly 100 years and reflects the same character and charm it had when it was built over 120 years ago.

Greg is from Dallas Texas and worked in both hospitality and then media for some 18 years before he decided to sell up and sail around the world. He fell in love with New Zealand's beauty and now calls New Zealand home.

Peter is a kiwi, worked as a chef for 20+ years in his own business and then opted like Greg for a change and went nursing for 12 years. Together we found Arcadia, packed the house and headed north to Russell and the Bay of Islands.

Between us we make a great team, our approach is laid back and helpful. Simply put, we just want you to have a great time with us as we share Arcadia, The Bay of Islands and Russell with you.

We are very proud of Arcadia's continued success as one of New Zealand's Top Rated B&Bs and can't wait to share our historic village with you.

When you arrive, push the doorbell, we'll show you around, orientate you to Arcadia, Russell and the Bay of Islands .

The three downstairs luxury rooms have private decks, en-suite bathrooms and stunning water views. Some guests are drawn to the space and separate living spaces within the Te Punga suite, while others prefer the beachy feel of the Tautoru suite. For families or close friends the Matariki suite is an ideal choice—two bedrooms can sleep up to four guests.

The Upstairs

The two upstairs guest rooms are slightly smaller but with a lovely and cozy feel. The Takurua room is light and simple with a fantastic bay view—perfect for the busy traveller. The Ranginui room is without a view of the bay but is instead awash with afternoon and evening sun—one of the best spots in the house to relax at the end of the day.

The Cottage

The 2 bedroom semi self-contained Arcadia cottage is a delightful residence for up to four guests. A full kitchen with a gas stovetop, dining area and two bedrooms are positioned on the ground floor, and a white timber staircase leads up to the mezzanine sitting room which is bathed in natural light. Sit at the beautiful bay window looking out to the yacht-strewn water below, or curl up in one of the luxurious leather recliners with a glass of wine and a good book.
